

Regency Auction 32 Offers Stunning Silver Dollars, Type Coins, and Shipwreck Gold Coins in New Orleans

Important rarities from multiple collections highlight important sale

(Lincroft, NJ—April 26, 2019)—Legend Rare Coin Auctions' 32nd Regency Auction, the official auction of the PCGS Members Show in New Orleans will be conducted over two days, May 15 and May 16. Offering over 630 lots from the Pug, Issaquah Estate, Vanderbilt, Coronet II, Wolverine, and Northern Lights Collections, as well as properties from other important consignments, including a world class offering of gold coins recovered from the wreck of the S.S. Central America.

The auction session on May 15 is our second "Dollar Day" auction, and features important and high-end silver dollars in all series, anchored by a trio of important early dollars from the Pug Collection, No Motto Liberty Seated and Peace dollars from the Issaquah Estate, and Morgan dollars from the Coronet II and Vanderbilt Collections.

"After the huge success of our first ever 'Dollar Day' session in Regency Auction 26 (May 2018), and the consignment of over 180 silver dollars, we decided to host another 'Dollar Day,'" explained Julie Abrams, president of Legend Rare Coin Auctions. "We are proud to offer these great silver dollars, many of which have been off the market for ages, including several world class high-end Morgan dollars, some of which are FINEST or tied for finest graded."

"Lot 1 is arguably one of the more important silver dollars in the sale," said Greg Cohen, senior numismatist. "The high end 1795 dollar, a borderline Mint State coin, with a large silver plug in the center and gorgeous toning, has a pedigree that goes back over 130 years, and has been theorized that it was among the first 1795 silver dollars struck (early die state from the first die marriage used). Other important silver dollars include GEM examples of the 1889 and 1893 Carson City issues from the Coronet Collection II. If you collect Mint State No Motto Seated Liberty dollars, the lovely coins from the Issaquah Collection present a rare opportunity for the type or date collector."

Thursday, May 16 will present the rest of Regency Auction, starting with the Wolverine Collection. The collector focused over the course of the last 15 years on the highest possible grade Proof Indian cents and Mint State Barber dimes. Many of these coins are Pop Top or close to the finest known. Other important consignments include the Northern Lights Collection of Proof Buffalo nickels, Pug Collection of Draped Bust quarters and a great mix of other type coins from all series. The offering of gold coins begins with a world class selection of rarities from the wreck of the S.S. Central America, including the famed "Supernova," the monster toned 1857-S $20 in PCGS MS67 CAC. The sale ends with Set Registry quality classic commemoratives and a selection of rare patterns, including a copper striking of the famed Bickford $10.

"Legend Rare Coin Auctions' focus on high-end and premium quality coins attracts only the best consignments," continued Ms. Abrams, noting "many of these coins came from collectors who focused on special coins. Their efforts are clearly seen in our auction presentation."
